The resignations have been tendered for various reasons such as personal reasons like health, education of children, migration to foreign countries etc. and not necessarily due to less salary.

(b) Public sector airlines endeavour to provide salary package in line with the industry standards. Keeping the current market trends in background, Indian Airlines have signed a Memorandum of Settlements with Indian Commercial Pilots Association (ICPA) on 18.7.2006. The settlement is based on the principle of "Fly More Earn More" with incentive to Pilots who fly more. Wages of Alliance Air Pilots were revised w.e.f. 1.10.2004. These have been further revised in case of ATR Commanders w.e.f. March, 2006.
